“I have walked that long road to freedom. I have tried not to falter; have made missteps along the way.

But I have discovered the secret that after climbing a great hill, one only finds that there are more hills to climb.

I have taken a moment here to rest, to steal a view of the glorious vista that surrounds me, to look back on the distance I have come.

But I can rest only for a moment, for with freedom come responsibilities, and I dare not linger, for my long walk is not yet ended.”

Nelson Mandela

“We are honoured in that one of our 2013 Mandela Day collaborators is set to test his endurance to fatigue and add his name amongst the conquerors in climbing and reaching Africa’s highest summit.

It is my pleasure to inform this August House that in our midst we have Mr. Richard Mabaso of Imbumba Foundation who plans to climb Mount Kilimanjaro, the highest mountain in Africa on 18 July 2013 to raise funds to procure sanitary towels for school girls from disadvantaged rural areas”
