

Tribute to Vuyo Mbuli

The MEC for Education, Mrs Reginah Mhaule added her voice to that of the millions of South Africans in paying tribute to a fallen Mr Vuyo Mbuli.

“Our patriotic flags are flying half-mast in our hearts for an outstanding personality has fallen. Vuyo was an outstanding character full of life and a personality of note. His professional acumen was beyond reproach, you always marvel the simplicity at which he handled constructive engagements. Indeed he will be highly missed by all.” Said MEC

The media houses are empty without his prowess and I take this time to extend my profound condolences to the family, his colleagues at SABC and to all who are directly or indirectly affected by this unfortunate development.

May His Soul Rest in Peace.

Mrs Reginah Mhaule
