The Department further congratulates those who made the mark. These cohorts of candidates are allowed to register as part-time candidates for October/November NSC examinations, if they failed to meet the pass requirements. The deadline for registration is the 29 May 2015. Parents and the community leadership are requested to support the learners this time around.

The certificates of those who passed will be released on the 30 June 2015 after the finalization of remark processes. Those wish to apply for re-mark must pay a prescribed fee and complete the necessary application forms by 14 May 2015.

The certificates for those who didn't write the supplementary examinations are obtainable from schools from 4 May 2015 and should be collected within a period of six (6) months. Those failed to meet the pass requirements are issued with subject certificates that are also available in schools.
