SUBJECT : MEC KEEPS HER PROMISES

When the MEC, visited Lambalati Secondary School on Thursday, 03 February 2015 in Tonga Block B under Nkomazi Local Municipality accompanied by the late Badanile Zulu, affectionately known as “Make Zuka” she promised to build the school a new kitchen as she had discovered that school’s kitchen was not in a good condition.

On the day the MEC had this to say; “When I was moving around your school, I realised that you do not have a proper kitchen. I did not wait for your principal to tell me about your challenges including the structure your kitchen, as I had seen it myself. I will make sure that your school gets a good kitchen before the end of this year, 2015. Your school is part of those that continue to make our province proud” Said the MEC.

She further made a commitment that she will contribute towards getting shoes to deserving learners.

To this effect the MEC solicited the benevolence of Old Mutual which donated 60 sets to be distributed to deserving learners of Lambalati Secondary School, Luggedlane Primary School and Lodakada Primary School.

On Friday, 15 May 2015 at 13H00, the Department will introduce the team from Mpumalanga Regional Training Trust (MRTT) at Lambalati Secondary School that will begin with the construction of a new Kitchen and the shoes will be distributed. The Department will also use this occasion to handover the school shoes to needy learners as indicated above.

All media is invited.
