MEDIA ADVISORY- MEC's PUBLIC RELATIONS PROGRAMME 28- 31 JULY 2015

The MEC's Public Relations Programme.

1. The MEC for the Mpumalanga Department of Education will yet again devote 67 minutes of her time by giving Sibukosethu Secondary School a new look on 28 July 2015.

The programme of the day will include amongst other activities, such as the re-doing of plumbing works; fixing and fitting new doors, broken windows and cupboards , gardening and general cleaning of the school, as well as painting of the school buildings.

On the same day, ABSA will donate school shoes to 50 learners at the school; this is in addition to the 50 pairs of school shoes they have donated to Silindokuhle Special School at Emangweni in the Nkomazi Local Municipality.

2. In her quest to making everyday a Mandela day, the Honourable MEC will continue by officially handing over two new state of the art schools, Ngema and Injambulo Secondary Schools to the community of Wakkerstroom on 31 July 2015, under Mkhondo Local Municipality.

These two state of the art schools will ensure that Learning and Teaching become enjoyable to the learners of Wakkerstroom community. Our International Icon, Dr. Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela, believed in and fought for the education of an African child.

It is our duty to ensure that we do our level best to ensure that we create an enabling environment for Learning and Teaching in all our schools. I therefore call upon to the community of Wakkerstroom to look after the schools and protect them against vandalism and theft. Said the MEC, Mrs. Reginah Mhaule.
