THE WRITING OF THE SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMINATIONS COMMENCED VERY WELL

The Department sends its warm well wishes to all the learners who will be sitting for the supplementary exams. The supplementary examinations started today, 22 February 2017 with the learners writing Computer applications and non-official languages (Hindu, Spanish, and Greek etc.)

All systems are in place for the smooth running of the examinations and so far no incident has been reported to the Department. We also urge all candidates to exert themselves vigorously during the three weeks period of the examinations. Said the MEC

I also call upon communities to take the examination seriously and give their unwavering support these learners. Added the MEC

The Department also encourages schools to be of great assistance to these learners during the period of the supplementary examinations and beyond. The Learners are also urged to take advantage of the radio lessons arranged as follows;

Ligwalagwala FM : Tuesdays and Wednesday from 17H30 – 18H00

Ikwekwezi FM : Tuesdays and Thursdays from 15H15 – 15H45

Learners who have any query concerning the supplementary examinations can visit the centers where they have registered to write for assistance.
