- Explanation
 - Heading
- 2 marks
- 1 mark or as indicated in the memorandum
- 6.4 All questions that require candidates to 'explain/discuss/describe' will be marked as follows:
- 6.3 If candidates are required to provide their own examples/views, brainstorm this at the marking centre to finalise alternative answers.
- 6.2 If two facts are written in one sentence, award the candidate FULL credit. NB: This applies to only questions where the numbers of facts are specified. If for example, FIVE facts are required, mark the candidate's FIRST FIVE responses and ignore the rest of the responses. Indicate by drawing a line across the unmarked portion or use the word 'Cancel'.

SECTION B

5. Please take due note of other relevant answers provided by candidates and allocate marks accordingly. (In cases where the answer is unclear or indicates some understanding, part-marks should be allocated, for example, one mark instead of the maximum of two marks.)

NOTE: There are no alternative answers for SECTION A.

- uses a different expression from that which appears in the memorandum.
 - comes from another source.
 - is correct and original.
 - relates to another applicable LO or AS.
4. A comprehensive memorandum has been provided but this is by no means exhaustive. Due consideration should be given to an answer that is correct but:
3. Candidates' responses must be in full sentences for SECTIONS B and C. This would depend on the nature of the question.

2. The numbering of Assessment Standards is in accordance with the principle of progression from Grades 10 to 12, e.g. the first Assessment Standard is 12.1.2.

- Marker: Red
- Senior Marker: Green
- Deputy Chief and Chief Marker: Black
- Internal Moderator: Orange

NOTES TO MARKERS

Please turn over

NOTE: The mark allocation for insight may vary for each essay.

MARKS	CONTENT
32 (max.)	Facts
2	L
2	A
2	S
2	O
40	TOTAL

At the end of each essay indicate the allocation of marks for facts and marks for insight as follows:

7.5 Mark all relevant facts until the MAXIMUM mark in a subsection has been attained. Write MAX after maximum marks have been obtained.

7.4 The components of insight are indicated at the end of the suggested answer for each question.

7.3 Indicate insight in the left-hand margin with a symbol e.g. ('L, A, S and/or O')

- NOTE:
- No marks will be allocated for contents repeated from the introduction and conclusion.
 - The candidate forfeits marks for layout if the words INTRODUCTION and CONCLUSION are not stated.

2	Layout/Structure: (Is there an introduction, body using proper paragraphs and conclusion? / Is there a logical flow/link in the discussion?)
2	Analysis and interpretation: (learners' ability to break down the question to show understanding of what is being asked)
2	Synthesis: (What parts to the question would you have included in the answer? Are there decisions made from a combination of relevant points?)
2	Originality: examples, recency of information, current trends and developments
8	TOTAL FOR INSIGHT:
32	TOTAL MARKS FOR FACTS:
40	TOTAL MARKS FOR ESSAY (8 + 32)

Insight consists of the following components:

Introduction	Maximum: 32
Content
Conclusion
Insight	8
TOTAL	40

The breakdown of the mark allocation for the essays is as follows:

SECTION C

6.5 In all questions that require candidates to 'name/list/mention' etc, the answers of the candidates can be in phrases and not necessarily in full sentences.

Please turn over (MM)

- 7.7 When awarding marks for facts, take note of the sub-maxima indicated, especially if candidates do not make use of the same subheadings. Remember, headings and subheadings are encouraged and contribute to insight (structuring/logical flow/sequencing) and indicate clarity of thought. (See MARK BREAKDOWN at the end of each question.)
- 7.8 If the candidate identifies/interprets the question INCORRECTLY, then he/she may still obtain marks for insight.
- 7.9 If a different approach is used by candidates, ensure that the answers are assessed according to the mark allocation/subheadings as indicated in the memorandum.
- 8. Take particular note of the repetition of facts. Indicate with a R.
- 9. Subtotals to questions must be written in the right-hand margin. Circle the subtotals as indicated by the allocation of marks. Only the total for each question should appear in the left-hand margin next to the appropriate question number.
- 10. Allocate TWO marks for complete sentences. Allocate ONE mark for phrases, incomplete sentences and vague answers.
- 11. Please note that with effect from 2012 (final examination) no marks will be allocated for indicating Yes (✓✓)/No (✓) in evaluation type questions requiring substantiation or motivation.
