

Vision

Advancing Excellence in Education Provision

Mission

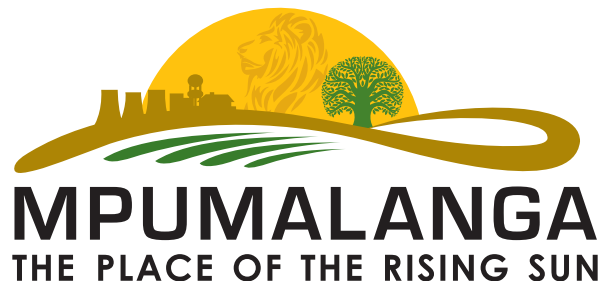

The Mpumalanga Department of Education commits to work with its stakeholders to promote effective teaching and learning through good governance, effective management and leadership.

Corporate Values

- Accountability
- Consultation,
- Integrity,
- Innovation
- Transformation,

NELSON MANDELA FOUNDATION
Living the legacy

To join the MEC Book Club contact:
Mr. Khumbulani Ndawo (Chief Education Specialist)
Email: k.ndawo@education.mpu.gov.za
Tel: 0137665936

MEC Book Club

"Rekindling the Culture of Reading"

I Love Reading

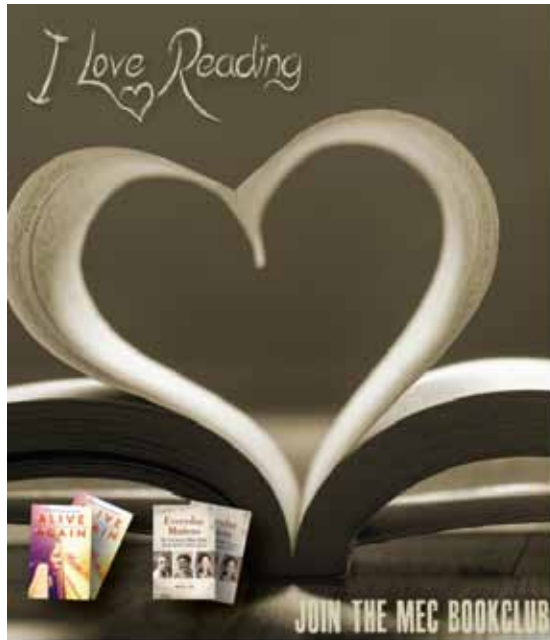

JOIN THE MEC BOOKCLUB

Launched

On 21st July 2015 during the occasion of the welcome ceremony of the Trek 4 Mandela Climbers at Cyril Clarke Secondary School.

Objectives

To rekindle the culture of reading for leisure

To make reading an everyday experience

To inculcate the love for reading amongst citizens of Mpumalanga

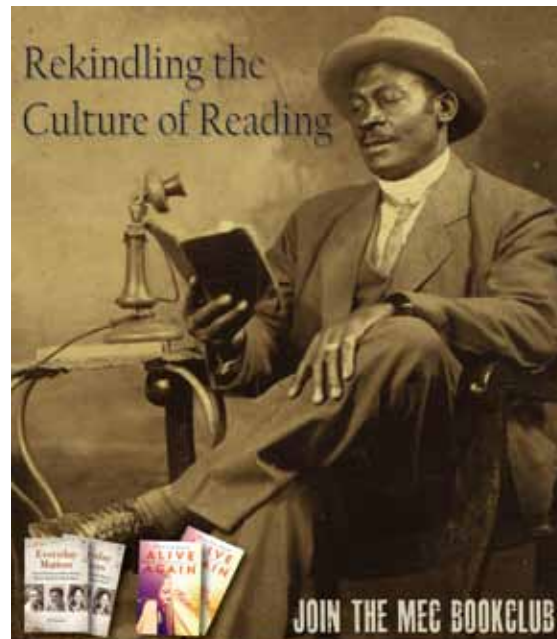

To encourage communities to visit community libraries and learners to value school libraries

To demystify the myth that “if you want to hide information from a person, put it in writing”

To encourage communities to donate books to community and school libraries

To promote the reading of books that are written in our indigenous languages.

Membership

Membership and participation to the MEC Book Club shall be voluntary and any member of the community may be a member.

No membership fee is expected from members.

Expectations

Each member should buy one or both prescribed books to read for the duration of the prescribed period.

Each member should after reading the book submit his/her objective review of the book.

The reviews will be shared to all members.

Members are encouraged to donate the book to a community or school library after reading it.

