INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION

1. This question paper consists of FOUR questions.

2. QUESTION 1 is COMPULSORY. Choose TWO questions from the remaining three questions.

3. Read ALL the questions carefully.

4. Number the answers correctly according to the numbering system used in this question paper.

5. Write neatly and legibly.

6. The length of your answers must be in accordance with the marks allocated to each question.
QUESTION 1 (COMPULSORY)

1.1 Dialogue is extremely important in situations of religious diversity.

In the light of the above statement, critically discuss the following:

1.1.1 Inter-religious dialogue
1.1.2 The dialogue of life
1.1.3 The dialogue of action

1.2 Discuss the Christian point of view with regard to religious pluralism.

QUESTION 2

2.1 Discuss the functionalist view of religion and the teachings of the leading functionalists Emile Durkheim and Hans Mol.

2.2 Discuss the points of criticism with regard to the functionalist view of religion.

QUESTION 3

3.1 The environment affects how people see themselves, their world and even how they understand divinity.

In the light of the above statement, critically discuss how the African traditional religion and Hinduism view the environment.

3.2 Discuss how Judaism, Christianity and Buddhism view leisure, rest and recreation.

QUESTION 4

4.1 Christianity started as a small Messianic movement within Judaism to become one of the major religions in the world.

How did this religion develop in South Africa?

4.2 Discuss the role played by religious communities in the struggle for freedom in South Africa during the apartheid era.

TOTAL: 150